Taipei Review 2001

This index of the articles appearing in the year 2001 issues of the monthly Taipei Review (Vol. 51) is arranged by major and minor subject. Notes in parentheses have been added for clarification.

INDEX

ARTS

CERAMICS

Passion in the Heart, A (Profiles/life, times, and work of Chiaochih master ceramist Lin Tsai-hsing) Feb., 54-65

What Dreams May Come (newly opened Yingko Ceramics Museum) May, 48-57

COLLECTING

Bamboo Man (Profiles/Patrick Lee's collection of bamboo artifacts) Oct., 54-65

FILM

Cinematic Crossroads (Society/Culture/problems facing Taiwan's film industry) Dec., 14-21

Fame by Frame: The Lee Ang Story (Profiles/Taiwan's first Oscar award winning filmmaker) Jul., 54-65

FOLK ART

Cutting Edge Artistry (Profiles/master paper cutter Li Huan-chang) May, 58-65

LITERATURE

Magic of Language, The (Profiles/short-story author Cheng Ching-wen) Aug., 58-65

METALWORK

Metal Fireflies (a group of women metalwork artists and jewelry makers) Apr., 54-65

Swordsmith and His Legacy, A (Profiles/master Chinese sword maker Chen Tian-yang) Nov., 56-65

PAINTING

Through Watercolor Eyes (Profiles/watercolor painter Chen Yang-chun) Jun., 54-65

THEATER

Power of Plays, The (the development of Taiwan's theater industry) Sep., 56-65

BIOTECHNOLOGY

Biospeak: Key Biomedical Terms (glossary of biomedical terms) May, 31

Cultivating Competitiveness (role of biotechnology in agriculture) May, 14-21

From Microchip to Biochip (Taiwan's burgeoning biomedical industry) May, 24-31

Gambling on Genetics (progress in building a local biotechnology industry) May, 6-13

Microorganisms Clean Up (Environment/biotechnology applied to environmental protection) May, 32-39

Modified Tastes (genetically modified foods) May, 22-23

BOOK REVIEWS

Humanizing the Headlines (Nancy Bernkopf Tucker, China Confidential: American Diplomats and Sino-American Relations, 1945-1996) Jun., 46-53

Taiwan Primer for Beginners (John F. Copper, Taiwan: Nation-State or Province?) Oct., 38-43

Two Views of China's Future (Gordon G. Chang, The Coming Collapse of China; Steven W. Mosher, Hegemon: China's Plan to Dominate Asia and the World) Dec., 38-43

CROSS-STRAIT RELATIONS

Bridge Over Troubled Water (minilinks between outlying island groups of Matsu and Kinmen to mainland China are established) Apr., 28-37

China and Taiwan—From Flash Point to Redefining One China (Security/the likelihood of war between China and Taiwan may be receding) Mar., 46-53

Optimistic Outreach (editorial on President Chen Shui-bian's groundbreaking speech addressing political integration issues) Mar., 1

Three Links, The (short definition and description of the three links) Apr., 36-37

Year of Living Dangerously, The (Foreign Relations/foreign policy tasks in Asia facing the new US president) Feb., 36-43

ECONOMICS

Hard Times (Politics/Political Development/what is the government doing to revive the economy?) Aug., 14-21

BUSINESS

Cash In, Cash Out (Society/Youth Culture/what youths spend their money on and how they earn it) Sep., 14-21

INDEX

Not So Quiet American, The (editorial on the American Chamber of Commerce's annual White Paper) Jul., 1
Starting Over (editorial on how the economy can benefit from the enthusiasm of newly graduated students) Aug., 1

LABOR

Adjusting Foreign Labor's Role (Society/policies behind the use of foreign labor in Taiwan) Nov., 14-21
Behind the Numbers (Society/the state of labor unions on the island) Nov., 22-29
Going Solo (Society/unemployment is giving rise to the ranks of the self-employed) Nov., 30-37
Hard at Work, or Hardly Working? (Society/the state of Taiwan's labor affairs) Nov., 4-13
Time for Training (Society/editorial on how companies should upgrade their workforce to boost competitiveness) Nov., 1

MANUFACTURING

All in a Day's Work (editorial on the confusion between hours spent in the workplace and actual productivity) Feb., 1
Industrial Heartbreak Land (survey of manufacturing in difficult economic climate) Feb., 4-11
Power to the People (does Taiwan need more power and, if so, where is it to come from?) Feb., 28-35
Sun Also Sets, The (Taiwan's traditional industries are struggling at home and abroad) Feb., 12-19
Technical Knockouts (can Taiwan stay at the top of the computer hardware heap in times of increasing economic adversity?) Feb., 20-27

EDUCATION

SINOLOGY

Europe's Chinese Puzzlers (France and Holland as major Sinology centers) Jan., 44-55

ENVIRONMENT

Microorganisms Clean Up (Biotechnology/biotechnology applied to environmental protection) May, 32-39

CITY PROFILE

Capital, a Balanced Civic Society, The (Taipei's transformation into a more livable Asian city) Nov., 38-47

DOMESTIC TRANSPORTATION

Long Way Round, The (overview of Taiwan's transportation issues) Jul., 4-11
Musical Chairs in the Air (domestic airlines face tough times with lower passenger loads and higher overheads) Jul., 20-27
Parking in the City (a day in the life of a Taipei City traffic cop) Jul., 35
Railway or the Highway (Taiwan's domestic rail system) Jul., 12-19
Road of Engineers, The (the island's civil engineers talk about the pitfalls and rewards of their work) Aug., 48-57
Road Warriors (the condition of the island's highways and freeways) Jul., 28-34
Sustainable Subways (Taipei's mass rapid transit system) Jul., 36-43

TAIWAN'S HISTORIC BUILDINGS

Bamboo Fences, Fading History (military dependents' villages are fading away) Jan., 32-37
Colonial Constructs (Japan's architectural legacy to Taiwan) Jan., 24-25
Head Office, The (the Office of the President is no longer a symbol of repression) Jan., 30-31
Island Fortresses (only a handful of Dutch and Spanish relics remain as a reminder of Taiwan's early colonial past) Jan., 10-15
Mirrors of History (Taiwan's architectural heritage in terms of conflict between traditional and foreign cultures) Jan., 4-9
New Blood, New Buildings (late Ming and early Ching immigrants transformed Taiwan's architecture) Jan., 16-21
Part Temple, Part Treasure (Lukang's Lungshan Temple) Jan., 22-23

TOURISM

Predicament in Paradise (Penghu considers introducing gambling to lure more tourists) Dec., 54-65
Where Stars Shine Bright (the tourism situation on Orchid Island, also known as Lanyu) Oct., 44-53

FOREIGN RELATIONS

Year of Living Dangerously, The (Cross-strait Relations/foreign policy tasks in Asia facing the new US president) Feb., 36-43

HEALTH

Cyberdoctor Is In, The (how the Internet is being used in and by the medical industry) Apr., 46-53

HISTORY

February 28 Incident, The (Society/Human Rights/ description of events leading to the 1947 bloody crackdown) Jun., 12

Hsimenting's Second Spring (Society/Taipei's oldest entertainment district is given an unexpected new lease on life) Feb., 44-53

Railway Fever (nostalgia rekindles interest in the island's steam trains) Mar., 54-65

LAW

Life for a Life, A (Society/examination of Taiwan's death penalty process) Apr., 38-45

MEDIA

Almost Real (two popular computer-animated cartoon characters get their start in cyberspace) Dec., 44-53

POLITICS

Nice Guys Finish Where? (editorial on unfairness of Chen Shui-bian's bad press) Apr., 1

Steady as She Goes (editorial comparing Taiwan's problems with those of its neighbors) Jun., 1

POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT

As Others See Us (a long-time observer's view of Taiwan's democratic system) Aug., 40-47

Hard Times (Economics/what is the government doing to revive the economy?) Aug., 14-21

Minority Government, Majority Rule (the battle between the ruling Cabinet and opposition-led legislature) Aug., 22-29

One Year On (progress report on the first year of Chen Shui-bian's administration) Aug., 4-13

Year of Political Labor Pains, The (interviews with a cross section of Taiwan citizens about the political and economic situation) Aug., 30-39

PROFILES

Bamboo Man (Arts/Collecting/Patrick Lee's collection of bamboo artifacts) Oct., 54-65

Behind Human Rights (Society/Human Rights/short biography of writer and human rights activist Bo Yang) Jun., 8

Cutting Edge Artistry (Arts/Folk Art/master paper cutter Li Huan-chang) May, 58-65

Fame by Frame: The Lee Ang Story (Arts/Film/Taiwan's first Oscar award winning filmmaker) Jul., 54-65

Magic of Language, The (Arts/Literature/short-story author Cheng Ching-wen) Aug., 58-65

Passion in the Heart, A (Arts/Ceramics/life, times, and work of Chiaochih master ceramist Lin Tsai-hsing) Feb., 54-65

Swordsmith and His Legacy, A (Arts/Metalwork/master Chinese sword maker Chen Tian-yang) Nov., 56-65

Through Watercolor Eyes (Arts/Painting/watercolor painter Chen Yang-chun) Jun., 54-65

SECURITY

Blue Water Brawls—The Latest on Disputes in the South China Sea (recent events surrounding disputed Spratly, Pratas, and Paracel Islands) May, 40-47

China and Taiwan—From Flash Point to Redefining One China (Cross-strait Relations/the likelihood of war between China and Taiwan may be receding) Mar., 46-53

Preempting the PLA (deterrence is becoming an increasingly important element in the island's defense strategy) Jan., 38-43

Seafacts (at-a-glance guide to the South China Sea, the Association of Southeast Asian Nations, and its Regional Forum) May, 47

DEFENSE READINESS

Fighting Talk, Fighting Walk (are Taiwan's troops ready to defend the island in the event of attack?) Apr., 4-11

For Hearth and Home (what is the state of the island's reserve forces?) Apr., 20-27

Roll in the Hardware (despite efforts to build its own weapons, Taiwan still depends heavily on the United States for arms) Apr., 12-19

SOCIAL WELFARE

Balancing Act, A (interview with social worker Sung Shu-chiung) Mar., 44-45

INDEX

Child Welfare Now (various government assistance programs in child welfare) Mar., 19
Cultivating Caregivers (challenges facing the education and training of social workers) Mar., 36-43
Friends on the Street (efforts to ease the plight of the homeless) Mar., 28-35
Golden Age, Tarnished Image (benefits and assistance available to Taiwan's rapidly aging population) Mar., 20-27
Lending a Hand with Welfare (editorial on how charitable organizations can help government with social welfare services) May, 1
State of Welfare, The (Taiwan's social welfare system) Mar., 4-11
Suffer Little Children (government and charitable organizations unite to handle the growing number of child abuse cases) Mar., 12-18

SOCIETY

Adjusting Foreign Labor's Role (Economics/Labor/policies behind the use of foreign labor in Taiwan) Nov., 14-21
Behind the Numbers (Economics/Labor/the state of labor unions on the island) Nov., 22-29
Going Solo (Economics/Labor/unemployment is giving rise to the ranks of the self-employed) Nov., 30-37
Hard At Work, or Hardly Working? (Economics/Labor/the state of Taiwan's labor affairs) Nov., 4-13
Hsimenting's Second Spring (History/Taipei's oldest entertainment district is given an unexpected new lease on life) Feb., 44-53
Life for a Life, A (Law/examination of Taiwan's death penalty process) Apr., 38-45
Little Goody Two Shoes (polluted Baimi tries to reinvent itself as a clog-making center) Jan., 56-65
Right but Regrettable (editorial on unsatisfactory nature of Taiwan's official response to the crash of Singapore Airlines plane) Jan., 1
Time for Training (Economics/Labor/editorial on how companies should upgrade their workforce to boost competitiveness) Nov., 1

CULTURE

Back to the Grass Roots (cultural research and preservation efforts by the island's workshops) Dec., 30-37
Cinematic Crossroads (Arts/Film/problems facing Taiwan's film industry) Dec., 14-21
Finding Utopia in a Jungle City (private museums aim to fill a void left by public institutes) Dec., 22-29
Raising Cultural Consciousness (the island's national cultural policy examined) Dec., 4-13
Whose Culture Is It? (editorial on the diversity of Taiwan's cultural fabric) Dec., 1

FOLK RELIGION

Dedicated Followers of Matsu (annual pilgrimage featuring Taiwan's most popular folk goddess) Jul., 44-53

HUMAN RIGHTS

Behind Human Rights (Profiles/short biography of writer and human rights activist Bo Yang) Jun., 8
Commissioned Rights (human rights commissions in Northern Ireland, Ireland, and South Africa offered as examples for Taiwan) Jun., 38-45
Correctional System Check (human rights conditions in Taiwan's prisons) Jun., 14-21
February 28 Incident, The (History/description of events leading to the 1947 bloody crackdown) Jun., 12
Island of Hope (progress in Taiwan's human rights conditions) Jun., 4-13
Liberating Women (the state of women's rights on the island) Jun., 30-37
Minority, Not Minor (human rights conditions for the island's aborigines) Jun., 22-29

RECREATION

Open Waters (Taiwan's first around-the-world voyage by sailing boat) Nov., 48-55

RELIGION

Alternative Faith (popular nonmainstream religions and their origins) Oct., 22-29
Between Church and Classroom (how religious education has evolved in Taiwan and what direction it is headed toward) Oct., 30-37
Higher Calling, A (people who have dedicated their lives to their religious beliefs) Oct., 14-21
Something to Believe (Falun Gong movement in Taiwan) Sep., 46-55
We Are Not Gods (editorial on how religious Taiwanese are) Oct., 1
Where Solace Lies (how different religious groups developed in Taiwan and religion's role in modern society) Oct., 4-13

YOUTH CULTURE

Cash In, Cash Out (Economics/Business/what youths spend their money on and how they earn it) Sep., 14-21

Fun and Games (different types of recreation young people are engaged in) Sep., 22-29

Talking Teens (various youths discuss their lives, ambitions, and futures) Sep., 38-45

Ways We Dissent, The (the ways in which young people rebel) Sep., 30-37

When We Were Very Young (editorial about the changing face of the younger generation) Sep., 1

Young Hearts and Minds (a look at what today's youths in Taiwan are like) Sep., 4-13

INDEX OF WRITERS AND INTERVIEWS

This index to the 2001 issues of the monthly Taipei Review (Vol. 51) is arranged by surname.

BRISTOW, Damon

Preempting the PLA (Security/deterrence is becoming an increasingly important element in the island's defense strategy) Jan., 38-43

CHANG, Kant

Little Goody Two Shoes (with Anita Huang) (Society/polluted Baimi tries to reinvent itself as a clog-making center) Jan., 56-65

CHANG, Winnie

Friends on the Street (Social Welfare/efforts to ease the plight of the homeless) Mar., 28-35

CHEN, Tien-yang (interviewed)

Swordsmith and His Legacy, A (Arts/Metalwork/Profiles/master Chinese sword maker Chen Tian-yang) Nov., 56-65

CHENG, Ching-wen (interviewed)

Magic of Language, The (Arts/Literature/Profiles/short-story author Cheng Ching-wen) Aug., 58-65

CHUNG, Oscar

Child Welfare Now (Social Welfare/various government assistance programs in child welfare) Mar., 19

Cinematic Crossroads (Arts/Film/Society/Culture/problems facing Taiwan's film industry) Dec., 14-21

Europe's Chinese Puzzlers (Education/Sinology/France and Holland as major Sinology centers) Jan., 44-55

Gambling on Genetics (Biotechnology/progress in building a local biotechnology industry) May, 6-13

Liberating Women (Society/Human Rights/the state of women's rights on the island) Jun., 30-37

One Year On (Politics/Political Development/progress report on the first year of Chen Shui-bian's administration) Aug., 4-13

Open Waters (Society/Recreation/Taiwan's first around-the-world voyage by sailing boat) Nov., 48-55

Parking in the City (Environment/Domestic Transportation/a day in the life of a Taipei City traffic cop) Jul., 35

INDEX

Road Warriors (Environment/Domestic Transportation/ the condition of the island's highways and freeways) Jul., 28-34
Roll in the Hardware (Security/Defense Readiness/despite efforts to build its own weapons, Taiwan still depends heavily on the United States for arms) Apr., 12-19
Suffer Little Children (Social Welfare/government and charitable organizations unite to handle the growing number of child abuse cases) Mar., 12-18
Sun Also Sets, The (Economics/Manufacturing/Taiwan's traditional industries are struggling at home and abroad) Feb., 12-19
Ways We Dissent, The (Society/Youth Culture/the ways in which young people rebel) Sep., 30-37
Where Solace Lies (Society/Religion/how different religious groups developed in Taiwan and religion's role in modern society) Oct., 4-13
Where Stars Shine Bright (Environment/Tourism/the tourism situation on Orchid Island, also known as Lanyu) Oct., 44-53

DREYER, June Teufel
Humanizing the Headlines (Book Reviews/Nancy Bernkopf Tucker, China Confidential: American Diplomats and Sino-American Relations, 1945-1996) Jun., 46-53
Two Views of China's Future (Book Reviews/Gordon G. Chang, The Coming Collapse of China; Steven W. Mosher, Hegemon: China's Plan to Dominate Asia and the World) Dec., 38-43

DUFFY, Terence
Commissioned Rights (Society/Human Rights/human rights commissions in Northern Ireland, Ireland, and South Africa offered as examples for Taiwan) Jun., 38-45

EYTON, Laurence
As Others See Us (Politics/Political Development/a long-time observer's view of Taiwan's democratic system) Aug., 40-47

GAO, Pat
Adjusting Foreign Labor's Role (Economics/Labor/ Society/policies behind the use of foreign labor in Taiwan) Nov., 14-21
Alternative Faith (Society/Religion/popular nonmainstream religions and their origins) Oct., 22-29
Bridge Over Troubled Water (Cross-strait Relations/ minilinks between outlying island groups of Matsu and Kinmen to mainland China established) Apr., 28-37
Cash In, Cash Out (Economics/Business/Society/Youth Culture/what youths spend their money on and how they earn it) Sep., 14-21
Magic of Language, The (Arts/Literature/Profiles/short-story author Cheng Ching-wen) Aug., 58-65
Microorganisms Clean Up (Biotechnology/Environment/ biotechnology applied to environmental protection) May, 32-39
Minority, Not Minor (Society/Human Rights/human rights conditions for the island's aborigines) Jun., 22-29
New Blood, New Buildings (Environment/Taiwan's Historic Buildings/late Ming and early Ching immigrants transformed Taiwan's architecture) Jan., 16-21
Part Temple, Part Treasure (Environment/Taiwan's Historic Buildings/Lukang's Lungshan Temple) Jan., 22-23
Passion in the Heart, A (Arts/Ceramics/Profiles/life, times, and work of Chiaochih master ceramist Lin Tsai-hsing) Feb., 54-65
Railway or the Highway (Environment/Domestic Transportation/Taiwan's domestic rail system) Jul., 12-19
Raising Cultural Consciousness (Society/Culture/the island's national cultural policy examined) Dec., 4-13
Something to Believe (Society/Religion/Falun Gong movement in Taiwan) Sep., 46-55
State of Welfare, The (Social Welfare/Taiwan's social welfare system) Mar., 4-11
Three Links, The (Cross-strait Relations/short definition and description of the three links) Apr., 36-37

HALLORAN, Richard
Year of Living Dangerously, The (Cross-strait Relations/ Foreign Relations/foreign policy tasks in Asia facing the new US president) Feb., 36-43

HANNON, Brent
Musical Chairs in the Air (Environment/Domestic Transportation/domestic airlines face tough times with lower passenger loads and higher overheads) Jul., 20-27
Taiwan Primer for Beginners (Book Reviews/John F. Copper, Taiwan: Nation-State or Province?) Oct., 38-43

HER, Kelly
Balancing Act, A (Social Welfare/interview with social worker Sung Shu-chiung) Mar., 44-45
Bamboo Man (Arts/Collecting/Profiles/Patrick Lee's collection of bamboo artifacts) Oct., 54-65

Cultivating Caregivers (Social Welfare/challenges facing the education and training of social workers) Mar., 36-43
Finding Utopia in a Jungle City (Society/Culture/private museums aim to fill a void left by public institutes) Dec., 22-29
From Microchip to Biochip (Biotechnology/Taiwan's burgeoning biomedical industry) May, 24-31
Hard at Work, or Hardly Working? (Economics/Labor/Society/the state of Taiwan's labor affairs) Nov., 4-13
Hard Times (Economics/Politics/Political Development/what is the government doing to revive the economy?) Aug., 14-21
Island Fortresses (Environment/Taiwan's Historic Buildings/only a handful of Dutch and Spanish relics remain as a reminder of Taiwan's early colonial past) Jan., 10-15
Island of Hope (Society/Human Rights/progress in Taiwan's human rights conditions) Jun., 4-13
Metal Fireflies (Arts/Metalwork/a group of women metalwork artists and jewelry makers) Apr., 54-65
Predicament in Paradise (Environment/Tourism/Penghu considers introducing gambling to lure more tourists) Dec., 54-65
Sustainable Subways (Environment/Domestic Transportation/Taipei's mass rapid transit system) Jul., 36-43
Technical Knockouts (Economics/Manufacturing/can Taiwan stay at the top of the computer hardware heap in times of increasing economic adversity?) Feb., 20-27
Young Hearts and Minds (Society/Youth Culture/a look at what today's youths in Taiwan are like) Sep., 4-13

HUANG, Anita
Little Goody Two Shoes (with Kant Chang) (Society/polluted Baimi tries to reinvent itself as a clog-making center) Jan., 56-65

HUNG, Yi-yen
Capital, a Balanced Civic Society, The (Environment/City Profile/Taipei's transformation into a more livable Asian city) Nov., 38-47

HWANG, Jim
Back to the Grass Roots (Society/Culture/cultural research and preservation efforts by the island's workshops) Dec., 30-37
Bamboo Fences, Fading History (Environment/Taiwan's Historic Buildings/military dependents' villages are fading away) Jan., 32-37
Behind the Numbers (Economics/Labor/Society/the state of labor unions on the island) Nov., 22-29
Between Church and Classroom (Society/Religion/how religious education has evolved in Taiwan and what direction it is headed toward) Oct., 30-37
Correctional System Check (Society/Human Rights/human rights conditions in Taiwan's prisons) Jun., 14-21
Cultivating Competitiveness (Biotechnology/role of biotechnology in agriculture) May, 14-21
Fighting Talk, Fighting Walk (Security/Defense Readiness/are Taiwan's troops ready to defend the island in the event of attack?) Apr., 4-11
Long Way Round, The (Environment/Domestic Transportation/overview of Taiwan's transportation issues) Jul., 4-11
Minority Government, Majority Rule (Politics/Political Development/the battle between the ruling Cabinet and opposition-led legislature) Aug., 22-29
Mirrors of History (Environment/Taiwan's Historic Buildings/Taiwan's architectural heritage in terms of conflict between traditional and foreign cultures) Jan., 4-9
Modified Tastes (Biotechnology/genetically modified foods) May, 22-23
Railway Fever (History/nostalgia rekindles interest in the island's steam trains) Mar., 54-65
Power of Plays, The (Arts/Theater/the development of Taiwan's theater industry) Sep., 56-65
Power to the People (Economics/Manufacturing/does Taiwan need more power and, if so, where is it to come from?) Feb., 28-35
Swordsmith and His Legacy, A (Arts/Metalwork/Profiles/master Chinese sword maker Chen Tian-yang) Nov., 56-65

KAO, Raye
Almost Real (Media/two popular computer-animated cartoon characters get their start in cyberspace) Dec., 44-53
Fame by Frame: The Lee Ang Story (Arts/Film/Profiles/Taiwan's first Oscar award winning filmmaker) Jul., 54-65

INDEX

Fun and Games (Society/Youth Culture/different types of recreation young people are engaged in) Sep., 22-29
Going Solo (Economics/Labor/Society/unemployment is giving rise to the ranks of the self-employed) Nov., 30-37
Higher Calling, A (Society/Religion/people who have dedicated their lives to their religious beliefs) Oct., 14-21
Through Watercolor Eyes (Arts/Painting/Profiles/watercolor painter Chen Yang-chun) Jun., 54-65
What Dreams May Come (Arts/Ceramics/newly opened Yingko Ceramics Museum) May, 48-57
Year of Political Labor Pains, The (Politics/Political Development/interviews with a cross section of Taiwan citizens about the political and economic situation) Aug., 30-39

KENNEDY, Brian
Life for a Life, A (Law/Society/examination of Taiwan's death penalty process) Apr., 38-45

KLINTWORTH, Gary
China and Taiwan—From Flash Point to Redefining One China, (Cross-strait Relations/Security/the likelihood of war between China and Taiwan may be receding) Mar., 46-53

LIN, Meng-yi
Road of Engineers, The (the island's civil engineers talk about the pitfalls and rewards of their work) Aug., 48-57

SHENG, Virginia
Cutting Edge Artistry (Arts/Folk Art/Profiles/master paper cutter, Li Huan-chang) May, 58-65
For Hearth and Home (Security/Defense Readiness/what is the state of the island's reserve forces?) Apr., 20-27

SUNG, Shu-chiung (interviewed)
Balancing Act, A (Social Welfare/interview with social worker Sung Shu-chiung) Mar., 44-45

TSAI, Chia-shan
Cyberdoctor Is In, The (Health/how the Internet is being used in and by the medical industry) Apr., 46-53

VALENCIA, Mark J.
Blue Water Brawls—The Latest on Disputes in the South China Sea (Security/recent events surrounding disputed Spratly, Pratas, and Paracel Islands) May, 40-47

WONG, Sheila
Hsimenting's Second Spring (History/Society/Taipei's oldest entertainment district is given an unexpected new lease on life) Feb., 44-53

YANG, Jin
Colonial Constructs (Environment/Taiwan's Historic Buildings/Japan's architectural legacy to Taiwan) Jan., 24-25
Golden Age, Tarnished Image (Social Welfare/benefits and assistance available to Taiwan's rapidly aging population) Mar., 20-27
Head Office, The (Environment/Taiwan's Historic Buildings/the Office of the President is no longer a symbol of repression) Jan., 30-31
Industrial Heartbreak Land (Economics/Manufacturing/survey of manufacturing in difficult economic climate) Feb., 4-11

YEH, Eugene
Dedicated Followers of Matsu (Society/Folk Religion/annual pilgrimage featuring Taiwan's most popular folk goddess) Jul., 44-53

YU, Cho-lin (interviewed)
Parking in the City (Environment/Domestic Transportation/a day in the life of a Taipei City traffic cop) Jul., 35

EN

ND